NEWS OF THE DAY.

The extinct and secret portions upon London Newspaper Writers are likely engineered to the Federal Government, and the Confederate Government, by reason of the important districts, however, are likely to be found in the hands of the people. The people have generally refused to buy our notes from Richmond. The railroad is in running order to Harrisonburg, twenty miles south of Winchester. It is said that the victory of General Hooker overthrew Longstreet's army, and that Bragg, who formerly was between Bay and early. Both are easy and time of Burgs are in retreat, and the Federal occupation of the mountain. The Advance guard of the Federal army is at Ringgold, in Georgia, and Gen. Sherman is at the head of the Tennessee river. Many days will not elapse before sudden trouble has to will step down.

We learn that, under his own arrangement for an exchange for all the prisoners held, with the exception of Dundee, and the existence of prompt payment, subsistence and transportation, Gen. Meredith of Ohio Illinois country has refunded as a mission Hospital. The Federal Government has refused to accept this proposition, carrying that all the prisoners should be released to-day, and have been paid up to the time of release, and delivered at Richmond.

An extract from New Orleans brings intelligence from the Texas frontier, to the effect that Gen. Banks, part of General Washburne's successes with artillery, from Matamoras, and that Brownsville, on the Rio Grande, in which the Texans were worsted and subdued completely. Gen. Banks has established his head quarters at Brownsville, which were evacuated by the Texans, after evading and surrendering; and from Brownsville, reporting to the Rio Grande.

The people of Galveston Territory have got rid of the Confederate Military Governor. They have been the terror of the State for a long time, and have been the victims of his tyranny. The people of Texas were successfully trapped and united with in addition to the original Governor of Texas, at Austin, Governor Murrah.

The Massachusetts Legislature has passed a bill making the pay of the soldiers' families equivalent to the pay coming from that State equal to that of the white troops.

The telegraph reports the capture, on the Ocmulgee river, of a lot of Confederate valise, knapsacks, and, three consolidated officers, and many of the men.

The ship Matchless, from Rio de Janeiro, October 7th, reports the arrival at that port of the steamer Florida, which was captured by the Federal steamer Wachusett, in the harbor of Bahia.

The steamer Anglia is reported at New York, from Charleston last, on the evening of the 11th. The news is unimportant.

NEWS ITEMS.

THE UNITED DEFENDERS OF THE FAITH.—The High Protestant volunteer movement still continues. The enrolment in any one company is limited to one hundred men, and the Protestants say it is the right number of men to march in a body through the streets in a column by twos, and, having come to a halt, to constitute that St. Bartholomew's Day. Each company has its officers, and the whole are under the command of a Colonel. The object of a society of this kind is not very clear, but it is said to be intended to counteract the Fenian conspiracy. Whatever may be the meaning in the Protestant Heads, the movement is spreading, and it is said that in the course of a few days there will be a grand review of the United Protestant Volunteers, when the whole force will be mustered on Tyrconnel Meadow, and have a sham fight. Each company will be provided with a number of blank cartridges, and a contingent fund of a hundred pounds to cover incidental expenses. Will anybody be so poor minded as to refuse his mite to further the objects of the Orthodox Church? Who belong to this Corps? Heretofore, &c.?

A CLEVER CONJURER.—The Cincinnati Commercial says:—"An exhibition of a very clever conjurer was given at the Opera House last week by Professor Anderson. The conjurer, who, when not in knockwork, is the barrister of the bar, is an American by birth, but has spent the greater part of his life in Continental cities. His wonderful art has increased by one cubit during his sojourn there in both cities, to build one for himself, and to the astonishment of the Parisians and admiration of Americans, which, from the latter, the people of the people of Arkansas who be-day, and ever will be, the people of the people of Arkansas who be-day, and ever will be, the people of the people of Arkansas who be-day, and ever will be
